

LAURELS BAR & THEATRE

'PROJECTS PRODUCER' PACK

'SIREN' RESIDENT DRAG DJ 2021-2022

WHO WE ARE

Housed in a 120 year old social club in Whitley Bay, North Tyneside. Laurels is a Fringe theatre and nightspot founded by Olivier Award winning theatre maker Jamie Eastlake & Comedy Writer Steve Robertson in 2021.

With a year round theatrical programme, belter nights out and artist development programme, Laurels has quickly become a hotspot for artistic work and audiences down the North East coast.

LAURELS AIMS

- TO CREATE BOLD WORK FOR NORTH TYNESIDE AUDIENCES
- TO BE AN ALTERNATIVE NIGHT SPOT FOR WHITLEY BAY PATRONS
- TO TELL STORIES FROM MARGINALISED GROUPS ESPECIALLY FROM LOWER SOCIO-ECONOMIC VOICES
- TO BE THE STARTING POINT FOR WORK LOOKING FOR LARGER STAGES

Job Requirements:

“We are a small, passionate team, wanting to change the artistic output in North Tyneside and then change the world. We want someone with big ideas and an even bigger heart.”

Jamie Eastlake, Artistic Director

- A Proven record of theatre producing
- A proven track record in meeting challenging funding targets, preferably within the performing arts or a closely related field.
- Experience of Arts Council applications and reporting.
- Excellent people skills
- Good social media skills
- A love of new writing and new theatre
- Knowledge of TTR scheme

‘ANTICHRISTMAS’ BY REECE CONNELLY, 2022

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

“A NORTH TYNESIDE TREASURE IN THE MAKING” The Chronicle

- Working alongside the artistic director and head of comedy to assist in the producing of all in house productions
- Delivering ACE project Grants working alongside the artistic director
- Managing £1 a week scheme
- Managing Business of the week scheme
- Managing patrons and sponsors
- Working alongside business development manager on budget control
- To be a face to the public and artists in the building
- Working alongside the Artistic director, Developing new and already existing relationships with other artistic organisations and other community organisations.
- Implementing new revenue streams for artist development and the organisation as a whole.

HOW TO APPLY

You can apply in any of the following formats:

- Curriculum Vitae and letter. The letter should be no more than one side of A4.
- An audio recording of not more than 3 minutes.
- A video recording of not more than 3 minutes.
- Whichever way you choose to make your application please tell us:
 - What interests you in the role
 - What experience you have that you think will make you able to do the job brilliantly.
 - Any other experience and attributes that you have that you think make you a good candidate
- EMAIL JAMIE@LAURELSWHITLEY.CO.UK
DEADLINE MAY 5TH MIDDAY 2023

SALARY

- 25K PRO RATA (3 DAYS A WEEK)
- FLEXIBLE FOR JOINT APPLICANTS
- PLACE OF WORK - WHITLEY BAY OFFICE,
FLEXIBLE TO ALLOW SOME DAYS WORKING
FROM ELSEWHERE
- POTENTIAL FOR JOB EXPANSION

LAURELS (TRADING NAME OF CHICKEN LOGO PRODUCTIONS LIMITED)